

Cloud calling comes in all shapes and sizes

Find the perfect balance for your organization

Cloud calling is the more secure, scalable way to serve your business communication needs. But that doesn't mean you have to completely abandon your existing Private Brand Exchange (PBX) infrastructure. See how you can integrate cloud features to create the perfect balance for your unified communications (UC) needs — whether on-premises, in the cloud, or a mix of both.

Work smarter with Webex Calling provided by NTT

What are the benefits of cloud?

Always up to date	Build for a mobile workforce	Avoids disruption	Fully integrated	Easy to maintain	Proven secure
Release cycles run in weeks, not years	Connect from anywhere anytime	Greater resilience and security than on-site	Works with cloud apps like G Suite and Office 365	Reduces the burden on IT management	Audited, professional security practices

Cisco cloud calling offers distinct advantages

Secure calling with encryption and carrier-grade cloud infrastructure.	Global regulatory expertise and compliance across all markets served.	Easier control for IT through simple web portals.	Option to get the best of cloud services while leveraging existing investments, or go straight to the cloud and avoid major capital outlays.

It's not an all-or-nothing solution. Find the balance that's right for you:

- 1 Evaluate your current system for costs and agility
- 2 Consider your calling and collaboration needs today and in the future
- 3 Find a partner that addresses your major concerns
- 4 Decide which cloud-based services make sense now
- 5 Plan how to integrate cloud-based apps into on-premises platforms
- 6 Create a long-term plan for your organization

Webex Calling not only enables you to upgrade your PBX network with a secure cloud solution, but also extends your capabilities to meet future collaboration needs.
